

EFFICIENCY OUTSOURCED

Ship management companies are finding new business opportunities in times of recession. These third party service providers help vessel owners cut cost and improve efficiency

