

DESTINATION EAST

India's east coast is emerging as a main cargo hub for the country's trade. Rich in mineral resources and moving at a faster pace on industrialisation, the share of states on east coast, such as Tamil

Robust demand for commodities like iron ore in international market and the increasing requirement of coal for fueling power plants are further expected to boost the country's trade through east coast,