

DESTINATION FAST

India's east coast is emerging as a main cargo hub for the country's trade. Rich in mineral resources and moving at a faster pace on industrialisation, the

Robust demand for commodities like iron ore in international market and the increasing requirement of coal for fueling power plants are further expected to boost the country's trade